

Lam Soon (Thailand) Public Company Limited

Energy Management Policy

Lam Soon (Thailand) Public Company Limited realizes the importance of efficient energy use. The conservation of energy is considered as a part of the organization's operation and corporate executives must focus on energy management practices, therefore, guidelines for energy operations have been established in order to promote the maximum efficient and effective energy use as follows:

1. Support the corporate executives and employees at all levels give importance and have awareness of energy conservation by operating according to energy management guidelines.
2. Encourage the implementation of continuous efficiency improvement of energy use of organization and suitable for the industry to focus on the efficient energy use and reduce the production costs.
3. Operate and develop an appropriate energy management system including consistent with relevant laws and other requirements.
4. Support the necessary information and resources allocation to sufficient to achieve goals, including providing energy-saving products or services.
5. Encourage training on energy conservation to educate knowledge and make understanding of employees within organization and have guidelines that are in the same way.
6. Review and improve the energy policies, goals and plans at least once a year.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Anchalee Suebchantasiri', positioned above a dotted line.

Miss Anchalee Suebchantasiri

Managing Director

8 December 2021